Current Parent

ROLE

Provides direction in terms of legal matters

BACKGROUND

Mawande was born and raised in Gugulethu in Cape Town. During her early childhood, her family moved to a small town in the Eastern Cape known as King William's Town. She is married to Mayenzeke Baza and they are blessed with two children, a boy currently enrolled at Bennies and a daughter.

Mawande completed Grade 12 at Victoria Girls' High School in Grahamstown. Thereafter she pursued and completed an LLB degree at the University of the Witwatersrand. She returned to Wits and completed a Masters degree (LLM) in Intellectual Property. Her career in government began as a legal and policy researcher and thereafter she was a legal advisor in the media and television sector for 8 years. She then followed her calling and joined the Johannesburg Society of Advocates 'the Bar'. She is currently a member and holds chambers with the Pan African Bar Association of South Africa ('PABASA'). Her areas of practice are commercial law and intellectual property law. She co-founded AAA Entertainment, which is a sales, distribution, and film financing company that exports African Film and Television content to the world market and within Africa to all linear and non-linear platforms, i.e. Netflix, DSTV etc. She is the incumbent Chairperson of AAA.
